Made pillow cases for my Hope Chest

This was the old drug store that stood just west of FITCH ELECTRIC in 1952 when we moved there. They had a soda fountain. Often while Daddy worked, Cathy and I would go for ice cream in the evenings. Yes, she ate ice cream!

This is the lot where our business and house stood at that time. The only room between our house and the drug store was the width of the sidewalk. We had a door that opened to that walk.

The tall blue house was the home of Jack Helvey, who dealt in the business of a "junk store" or was it a "treasure trove" ?? Our building did not take up the whole empty space. I believe there was also a little building kept to us and the barber shop. I don't remember what kind of business it was. Perhaps at that time it was not in use

This was the barber shop on the corner.

The sidewalk beside our place led to the street but also led back to our yard in back. Very small and mostly fenced in.

"The blessings of the Lord be upon you."

Ps. 129:8

Not all the gifts of Christmas,
Not all the cheer of friends,

Can make a home the brighter

When the festal season ends.

So the gift that I would give you

And the cheer that I would send

Is the Gift of the tender

Christ-child.

The cheer of a heavenly Friend!

You Half to Get Well Quick

I'VE HEARD IT SAID THAT HALF A LOAF IS BETTER THAN NO BREAD~

BUT YOU COULDN'T BATHE
 IN HALF A BATH,

OR SLEEP IN HALF A BED;

AND HALF A CHAIR
LOOKS SILLY, AS YOU'LL SEE WITH HALF AN EYE,

AND HALF OF AN UMBRELLA
WOULDN'T KEEP YOU
VERY DRY -

IT'S JUST THE SAME WITH

GETTING WELL;

JUST HALF A TRY WON'T DO -

SO PLEASE --

TRY HARD AS

ANYTHING,

'Cause someone's missin' you!

Jim and Flo

"Delight thyself also in the Lord; and He shall give thee the desires of thine heart."—Ps. 37:4

You're missed when away,
And never before
Have prayers been ever so true,
To hasten the day
When God will restore
The blessings of good health to you!
